To the Honorable, the Judges of the United States
Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit:

The National Labor Relations Board (“the Board”), by its Deputy Associate General Counsel, respectfully submits this unopposed motion for a 45-day extension of time to file its responsive brief, through and including September 29, 2025. In support of its motion, the Board shows as follows:

1. After receiving a 30-day extension of time, Amazon.com Services LLC (“Amazon”) filed its opening brief on March 12. Amici curiae Chamber of Commerce, et al. filed a brief on March 19. The date for filing the Board’s responsive brief was postponed pursuant to 11th Cir. R. 31-1(d) while the Court considered a jurisdictional question the Court raised sua sponte.

2. On May 2, the Board filed a motion, joined by the Intervenor Amazon Labor Union No. 1, International Brotherhood of Teamsters (“the Union”), to strike arguments the Court lacks jurisdiction to consider from the briefs of Amazon and its amici. The Court granted the Board’s concurrently filed motion to stay the briefing schedule pending resolution of the motion to strike.

3. On July 16, the Court issued an order that the Board’s motion to strike and the Union’s joinder are carried with the case. The Court also lifted the stay of the briefing schedule. Accordingly, the Board’s brief is now due August 15.

4. Micah Jost, the Board attorney with primary responsibility for preparing the Board’s brief in this case, has an August 22 brief-filing deadline in Starbucks Corp. v. NLRB, No. 24-60651 (5th Cir.), which was already extended. Mr. Jost was also primarily responsible for preparing the Board’s petition for rehearing en banc in International Longshore & Warehouse Union v. NLRB, Nos. 23-632, 23-658, 23-780, 23-793 (9th Cir.), which was filed July 31. Kira Vol, the supervisory attorney on this case, is also assigned to those cases. In addition, she is supervising preparation of another brief due August 15 in Starbucks v. NLRB, 5th Cir. No. 24-60653.

5. Mr. Jost was required to take unanticipated sick leave this week due to illness, and he will be out of the office on previously scheduled leave from August

1 to August 11. Ms. Vol was on leave from July 21 through July 24, and she will be on previously planned leave for the last week of August.

6. Because the Board's motion to strike arguments the Court lacks jurisdiction to consider is carried with the case, the Board must now respond to those arguments, which occupy the bulk of Amazon's brief and the entirety of amici's brief, and involve weighty and complex issues under the First Amendment. The Board requires additional time to prepare its response to those arguments.

7. For the foregoing reasons, it will not be possible for Board counsel, with due diligence and giving priority to the preparation of the brief in this case, to meet the August 15 deadline.

8. Counsel for Amazon and intervenor Amazon Labor Union No. 1, International Brotherhood of Teamsters have stated that they do not oppose this request.

WHEREFORE, the Board respectfully requests that the Court grant this unopposed motion for a 45-day extension to file the Board's responsive brief, through and including September 29, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Ruth E. Burdick
